Creation Creating

God does not change his mind about you for he is not uncertain of Himself. What he knows can be known because he does not know only for himself.
He created you for himself but gave you the power to create for yourself so you could be like him. That is why your will is holy.

2Ti 1:6-7

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Can anything exceed the love of God? Can anything then exceed your will? Nothing can reach you from beyond it because being in God, you encompass everything. Believe this and you will realize how much is up to you.
God will never decide against you or he would be deciding against himself.
God created every mind by communicating His mind to it, thus establishing it forever as a channel for the reception of His mind and will.

Php 2:2
Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

1Co 2:16
For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

The will for humankind to create was given by God who was expressing the same will through creation. Since creative ability rests in the mind, everything that we create is a matter of our will. It is also to be said that whatever we create is reality in our own sight, but not necessarily in the sight of God.

The term salvation does not apply to the soul which is not in danger and does not need salvaged. Salvation is nothing more than right-mindedness.
